

ANNEX C: DETAILS OF LIVE GREEN PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST AND YOUNG CHAMPIONS CHALLENGE

Live Green Photography Contest

As part of Singapore G1 2012, the SEC organised a 'Live Green Photography Contest' on the Singapore G1 Facebook page from 11 July to 26 August 2012. The contest was open to all persons residing in Singapore and garnered close to 100 photo submissions that depict the different ways in which we can go green in our daily lives.

Soapbox Competition – Young Champions Challenge

The Young Champions Challenge was held on 2 September at the Marina Barrage and involved 16 participating teams which comprised youths from schools and Voluntary Welfare Organisations such as Boys Town, Muhammadiyah Welfare Home and Dunman Secondary School. This provided an opportunity for them to experience recreational transport in a green and fun way.

The breakdown of the 16 teams is as follows:

- NorthLight Secondary School (2 teams),
- Outram Secondary School (1 team),
- Ramakrishna Mission Home (1 team)
- Muhammadiyah Welfare Home (5 teams)
- Boys Town (2 teams)
- Dunman Secondary School (5 teams)
